His lobbying record is exceptional, while his rates are reasonable. No client is too small. He also has the contacts to bring on board any number of other successful lobbyists when a coalition of multiple lobbyists is required by a client with special needs.

The fingerprints of T. Jerry Williams can be found on hundreds of existing or proposed laws and numerous regulations that he actively initiated or collaborated on to enact or to defeat, amend, repeal, delay or even prevent from being introduced.

This veteran government relations executive knows and understands state government and public policy. He understands the dynamics of corporate boards, trade associations and coalitions. He also has the essential communication skills to meet the demands of each.

Professional Experience

T. Jerry Williams has over four decades of experience as a successful lobbyist in North Carolina. His ability to draft legislation and have his proposals enacted into law is well known. Further, he is successful in favorably amending or defeating unfavorable legislation or administrative rules.

A coalition and team builder, T. Jerry is an innovator, concept and policy developer, self-starter and communicator. A North Carolina native, this veteran lobbyist and consultant is recognized for his understanding of how to develop public policy. He also knows how North Carolina's state government works.

Since 1971 he has been registered as a lobbyist and is now the second longest continuously registered contract lobbyist in the state of North Carolina.

T. Jerry's earlier experiences, in banking and broadcasting before he became a government relations specialist, is often put to use. Many of his clients still benefit from his previous public relations and financial background.

Now you can put his legislative and regulatory experience to work on your behalf. Don't miss that opportunity. Call him today.

Contact T. Jerry Williams at 919.649.5941 and arrange to have him represent you before the North Carolina General Assembly and most state regulatory agencies as needed.
